Summary statement by the Secretary-General on matters of which the Security Council is seized and on the stage reached in their consideration

Addendum

Pursuant to rule 11 of the provisional rules of procedure of the Security Council, the Secretary-General is submitting the following summary statement.

The list of items of which the Security Council is seized is contained in document S/2000/40 of 15 February 2000.

During the week ending 15 January 2000, the Security Council took action on the following items:

The situation in Africa: the impact of AIDS on peace and security in Africa (see S/1997/40/Add.38; S/1998/44/Add.15, 16, 21, 37, 38, 46 and 48; S/1999/25/Add.37, 38 and 49)

The Security Council resumed its consideration of the item at its 4087th meeting, held on 10 January 2000 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations. There were three suspensions and three resumptions of the meeting.

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representatives of Algeria, Australia, Brazil, Bulgaria, Cape Verde, Croatia, Cuba, Cyprus, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Djibouti, Ethiopia, Indonesia, Italy, Japan, the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, Mongolia, New Zealand, Nigeria, Norway, Portugal, the Republic of Korea, Senegal, South Africa, Uganda, Zambia and Zimbabwe, at their request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote.

In accordance with the understanding reached in the Council's prior consultations, the President, with the consent of the Council, extended an invitation under rule 39 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure to James D. Wolfensohn, President of the World Bank, Mark Malloch Brown, Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme, and Peter Piot, Executive Director of the Joint United Nations Programme on HIV/AIDS.

The meeting was suspended three times.

Upon the third resumption of the meeting, in accordance with the understanding reached in the Council's prior consultations, the President, with the consent of the Council, extended an invitation under rule 39 of the Council's

The Security Council resumed its consideration of the item at its 4088th meeting, held on 13 January 2000 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations, having before it the report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations Mission of Observers in Prevlaka (S/1999/1302).

The President, with the consent of the Council, invited the representatives of Croatia, Germany and Italy, at their request, to participate in the discussion without the right to vote.

The President drew attention to a draft resolution (S/2000/10) submitted by Canada, France, Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, the Russian Federation, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the United States of America.

The Security Council proceeded to vote on draft resolution S/2000/10, and adopted it unanimously as resolution 1285 (2000) (for the text, see S/RES/1285 (2000); to be issued in Official Records of the Security Council, Fifty-fifth Year, Resolutions and Decisions of the Security Council, 2000).

Promoting peace and security: humanitarian assistance to refugees in Africa

The Security Council met to consider the item at its 4089th meeting, held on 13 January 2000 in accordance with the understanding reached in its prior consultations.

In accordance with the understanding reached in the Council's prior consultations, the President, with the consent of the Council, extended an invitation under rule 39 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure to Sadako Ogata, United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.

The President stated that, following consultations of the Council, he had been authorized to make a statement on behalf of the Council and read out the text of that statement (for the text, see S/PRST/2000/1; to be issued in Official Records of the Security Council, Fifty-fifth Year, Resolutions and Decisions of the Security Council, 2000).
